EPES CELEBRATION
Karen Anderson will once again be joining us in August to share the work of EPES with Prince of Peace. She has also announced her retirement from ELCA Mission work so this will be her last visit with us. As we have shared more than 40 years of mission work with Karen and EPES, her visit is a wonderful opportunity to celebrate that work together and to celebrate her retirement. We are hoping to pull together an afternoon of fun, food, and memories for her visit with us on August 18th. If you are interested in helping to make this a reality, please speak with Pastor Amber. Many hands will make light work as we plan to honor our support through the years and Karen's tireless work with EPES.

FOOD PANTRY We are running low on these items: Cereal, dish soap, snacks for kids- popcorn, jello etc. granola bars. Thank you.

GREETERS

For those that have greeted, I thank you. I think it is very beneficial to be welcomed on your way into church and for me and I hope for you, something you enjoy. It's a good chance to meet new people and perhaps get a hug or two.

For those that haven't signed up but are interested, there is plenty of opportunity and one that takes little time. If you have questions or want to sign up see me in the foyer after the service this Sunday. Bob Sanden

 BOOK STUDY: 1ST SATURDAY OF EVERY MONTH

"What would Jesus do?" – a profound question that cuts to the heart of the Christian Faith. In Tim Alberta's book, The Kingdom, the Power, and the Glory: American Evangelicals in an Age of Extremism, he delves in to the complex world of American evangelicals. As a journalist and practicing Christian and the son of an evangelical pastor, Alberta paints a vivid and troubling portrait of this movement.

Through the lens of televangelists, small-town preachers, and everyday churchgoers, Alberta reveals a faith that has been cheapened by fear, a promise tainted by partisan subterfuge, and a reputation marred by scandal. For millions of conservative Christians, America is their kingdom, a land uniquely blessed in a special covenant with God. However, this love of country has sometimes given way to a right-wing nationalist fervor, which trivializes the kingdom of Jesus Christ.

The book sheds light on the perils and potential of the Christian church in America today, exploring the pull toward politicization of the true message of Jesus: to love God completely and to love others sincerely, even those perceived as enemies. In a world where resentment and grievance sometimes overshadow the message of scripture, Alberta's book is a thought-provoking reflection on the intersection of faith, politics, and human nature.

Join us on August 3, 2024 at 10:00am in Room 20 as we discuss our thoughts on The Kingdom, the Power, and the Glory as a group.
